President report

Thank you, Marge for teaching our coloring class. I have finished my tote bag! Yea. I am planning on coloring another one. I told Aiden, that I colored! He said that he likes to color too.

I am disappointed that we could not have the Sharon McNamara Black seminar. I just hope everything gets straighten out and Sharon can get into the US. For those who do not know, Sharon was denied entrance into the USA. She was at the Houston convention, but I guess she got a different boarder agent, this time.

Thank you, Cloris for volunteering to do the window at the library for the month of October. If you would like to display something be sure and talk to Cloris.

The ladies have finished with our raffle project, so maybe we will be able to see it in October. Thanks for everyone who participated in painting.

Thank you, to the nominating committee, Carol, Janice, and Sharon for selecting our potential new officers for 2010. We have a good diverse group who has been selected and we will be voting in November, if you would like to nominate someone from the floor, you can do so.

If you have not turned in your survey, its not too late, just give it to me at our next meeting. If you want it in e-mail form, just let me know and I will e-mail it to you.

Keep practicing your painting skills.

Rita

WILDFLOWERS OF TEXOMA DECORATIVE ARTISTS

September 08, 2009 - Business meeting at 6:30 pm at Central Christian Church.

The meeting was called to order by President Rita Williams.

SEMINARS

Sharon M. Black seminar - Due to a number of requests from membership, Nancy announced that the covered bridge will be painted on Friday and the winter scene will be painted on Saturday.

Carol Reichelt and Lisa Thornhill are working on an option for lunch for both days of our seminar as a fund raiser for our club. The menu for Friday is baked potato, salad, dessert and tea. The menu for Saturday is lasagna, French bread, salad, dessert and tea. The charge for each day is $6.00 per person. Carol asked for a show of hands to see how many would like to participate.

Ginger Edwards wishes to change the dates for her seminar in 2010 from March 5, 6 & 7 to March 19, 20 & 21. A vote was taken to see if members still want her to come here for a seminar. Vote passed. We will vote again in October as to whether we want a 2 or 3 day seminar. By that time, Nancy will have pictures from Ginger to select from and prices for the seminar.

Treasurer report was approved to be filed for audit.

It was announced that Sandi Boling is recovering from heart surgery and is home and doing well. Ann Lovelace is doing much better. Jean Bentley is improving every day.

October is Decorative Painting month and Wildflowers has the window at the Sherman library reserved in October for display of painted items. CATS members would like to be able to submit items to help decorate the window. Cloris Martin volunteered to be in charge of accepting items for the window. A suggestion was made to put a picture in the window that shows members working on the tree skirt for the Christmas raffle.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann Keeling, Secretary

We will be learning how to do lettering, you will need the following supplies:

#2 or #4 or #6 flat/shader the best one you have, the newest one you have, it needs a good/sharp chiseled edge. Also the one with the longest bristles.

Black paint (any brand)

tracing paper

white copy paper
